

IN MEMORIAM

Debbie Walker

JULY 10, 1964 – JULY 2, 2017

We are very sad to announce the passing of Debbie Walker, wife of Scott Walker and daughter-in-law of Eddie and Dianne Walker. Deborah Elaine Hoschar Walker, 52, of Fort Worth, Texas, died the evening of July 2, 2017, at Harris Methodist Southwest Hospital, surrounded by her loving family and devoted friends.

She was born July 10, 1964, in Bossier City, LA, to Thomas and Hattie Hoschar. She is survived by her husband, Scott Walker, whom she married on March 19, 1988.

Debbie is also survived by her mother Hattie, brother and sister-in-law Tommy and Connie Hoschar, sister and brother-in-law Judy and Jim Whittle, sister-in-law Karen Hoschar and brother David Hoschar, along with several uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Debbie's father and three brothers Sam, Harley and Eddie preceded her in death.

She graduated from Castleberry High School in 1982 and went on to finish an associate's degree at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Debbie worked in the grocery store industry until 2000, when she shifted her focus to real estate. She was not only a top performing agent, but through her sincerity and integrity developed many lifelong friends that began as clients.

Her work ethic was unsurpassed; she was a loyal friend and proud puppy parent. Her smile was infectious, and her laugh was her signature.

Debbie had strong faith and a wonderful relationship with our Lord. She loved "her Scotty" with all her heart and will be forever missed.

Eddie Walker shared his feelings...

If you were to ask me what was my relationship with Debbie I would have to say, I filled the space of being a friend, a father-in-law, a stand in dad at times and just a person that loved her for the way she lived life. She always showed me the love and respect of being Scott's dad, appreciative of my role in our large family and most of all just sharing her love as she did with so many.

Her work ethics earned her the respect of many and her devotion to her family and friends was unquestionably. Her dad would have been so proud of the person she became, I know I was!
